GROUP TRAINING

Group Training is an employment and training arrangement whereby SGT employs apprentices and trainees under an approved Training Contract and places them with host employers. SGT undertakes the employer responsibilities for the quality and continuity of the apprentices and trainees employment and training.

Where possible placements will be for the term of the contract, it however may be necessary to rotate apprentices and trainees across host employers to ensure continuity of the Training Contract and enhance the quality and breadth of the training experience. In these instances Apprentices/Trainees may be required to attend Trade school, use Annual Leave or be Suspended whilst waiting for an appropriate placement. Every effort will be made to avoid contract suspensions.
