

STATEWIDE GROUP TRAINING (SA) INC

WORK HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

PURPOSE:

Statewide Group Training (SA) Inc. [SGT] recognises the importance of proper management of Work, Health and Safety [WHS]. The most valuable asset to the business is its employees, whose WHS ranks equally with all other financial and operational considerations.

SCOPE:

This policy applies to:

- Board Members
- All employees, including Managers, Field Officers, Administrative Officers; full time, part time, casual, temporary or permanent staff; apprentices and trainees, contractors, sub-contractors, and work experience personnel.
- and is not limited to, all aspects of employment; recruitment and selection; conditions and benefits; training and promotion; task allocation; hours; leave arrangements; workload; equipment and transport.
- on site, off site or after-hours work; work related social functions; conferences – wherever and whenever staff may be as a result of their SGT duties

POLICY:

It is the responsibility and aim of SGT to minimise the risk of injury and disease to employees and other persons, by adopting a planned and systematic approach to the management of WHS and providing the resources for its successful implementation and continuous improvement.

SGT will endeavour, through the regular review of its systems, to strive for continuous improvement to bring about an ongoing improvement of WHS performance, with the aim of eliminating all unwanted work-related hazards and work-related injuries.

SGT aims to comply with all relevant WHS legislation, Codes of Practice and Australian/New Zealand Standards.

All persons who work at SGT have responsibilities for observing WHS requirements and to take care to protect their own health and safety and to avoid adversely affecting the health and safety of any other person.

A breach of this WHS Policy may result in disciplinary action being taken.

Overall accountability for WHS rests with the appointed Responsible Officer of SGT – Namely the Chief Executive Officer.

So far as reasonably practicable, SGT will provide the following:

- A safe workplace and a safe and healthy working environment.
- Implementation of an effective hazard management process.
- Safe systems of work.
- Machinery, equipment, and substances in a safe condition; and
- Information, instruction, training and supervision necessary to ensure that each employee, contractor and volunteer is safe from injury and risks to health.

Active consultation and co-operation with employees and their representatives will be undertaken in order to ensure the best possible resolution for WHS issues at SGT. The arrangements for consultation are specified in the WHS Policies and Procedure Manual.

STATEWIDE GROUP TRAINING (SA) INC

WORK HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

In all instances, SGT will seek to implement best practice solutions for WHS concerns and ensure compliance with all relevant and current South Australian WHS legislation.

This WHS Policy will be reviewed each year, in consultation with employees and management, using established consultative mechanisms, and revised as necessary to keep up to date with new legislation and organisational changes.

A copy of this WHS Policy will be provided and explained to each employee/apprentice/trainee, host employer, contractor and volunteer and a copy placed in a prominent position of each workplace premises.

SGT will be responsible for:

- Appointing a Responsible Officer who has the overall responsibility to provide a healthy and safe workplace for all employee's contractors and volunteers and who will ensure that adequate resources are provided to meet WHS objectives and implement strategies.
- Providing mechanisms to enable employees and their representatives to be consulted on any proposals for, or changes to, the workplace, work practices, or policies or procedures that may affect the WHS of employees, contractors, and volunteers.
- Ensuring the provision of adequate information, instruction, training and supervision of all employees, contractors, and volunteers; and
- Ensuring this WHS Policy is implemented throughout the workplace.
- Reprimand or suspension of the contractor if full compliance with the WHS is not applied.
- Providing potential contractors are to be made aware of, and given, sufficient details of WHS policies of Statewide Group Training.
- Ensuring that a SGT representative/delegate must sign the contractor's own WHS Policy prior to the commencement of work
- Ensuring that a WHS contract is signed by the Principal Contractor which acknowledges responsibility for all sub-contractors employed by them in providing these services as a condition of the contract

Managers/Supervisors/Field Officers will be responsible for:

- The WHS of employees, contractors and volunteers they supervise, and for members of the public, clients, and any other persons who are in the area of operation.
- Implementing SGT WHS policies and procedures for which specific roles and responsibilities will be assigned and communicated.
- Day-to-day management of WHS issues within their area of responsibility.
- Effective consultation with employees, host employers, contractors and volunteers on all issues which may affect their WHS at work.
- Effective injury and illness reporting, recording and investigation and effective rehabilitation measure for employees, contractors and volunteers who may suffer work-related injuries and illnesses; and
- Supervising their areas of responsibilities to ensure full compliance with this WHS Policy.

Host Employers will be responsible for:

- The WHS of apprentices/trainees they supervise, and for members of the public, clients, and any other persons who are in the area of operation.
- Implementing WHS policies and procedures for which specific roles and responsibilities will be assigned and communicated.
- Day-to-day management of WHS issues within their area of responsibility.
- Effective consultation with apprentices/trainees, on all issues which may affect their WHS at work.
- Effective consultation with field officers on all issues which may affect the WHS of SGT's apprentices/trainees whilst in their host employment.
